The following is an informal translation of a statement received from the El Salvadoran National Police:

Quote: In accordance with the request from the Consulate to this institution regarding the whereabouts of Mr. John J. Sullivan, an American citizen, since Mr. Sullivan arrived in this country by air the 28th of December, 1980, having registered at the Hotel Salvadoran Sheraton, subsequent to which he left without having returned. We have initiated the following actions:

1. Sending a team of detectives to the hotel to investigate.

2. Distributing photos of Sullivan to all police and other security forces.

3. Checked all hotels in San Salvador.

4. All police units alerted to report on characteristics of all dead found in their jurisdiction.

5. The Director General of Immigration has been alerted to report any information regarding Mr. Sullivan.

6. Hospitals and health centers have been checked without results.

7. A nationwide alert, including all the information available on Mr. Sullivan, has been sent to all the national police headquarters countrywide.

God, Union and Liberty. Lt. Col of Artillery, DEM Domingo Monterrosa, Dep. Director General of the National Police. Unquote.
